

FOR THE LOVE OF WAR

Even War Bows to Love

A romantic couple is shown in a close embrace, nearly kissing. The man on the left has long, dark, wavy hair and a beard, wearing a dark, studded leather vest over a dark shirt. The woman on the right has long, flowing white hair and is wearing a green, leafy headband and a matching green, leafy top. The background is a dark, fiery orange and red, with many small, glowing embers or sparks floating around them. The overall mood is dramatic and intense.

When an exiled god of war chooses love over loyalty, he ignites a war with Olympus—and sets his son on a path that could either save the world....
